Nondiscrimination Policy

BCEN and its test development and test delivery vendors endorse the principles of equal opportunity and comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) as Amended. Eligibility criteria for BCEN examinations are applied equally to all applicants regardless of race, color, creed, gender, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, veteran status, age, marital status, or gender identity. All testing sites comply with all federal, state, and local laws regarding use of public buildings, ensure accessibility required under the ADA, and accommodate applicants with disabilities on an individual basis without additional cost. For the complete text of BCEN's nondiscrimination policy, consult the BCEN website at www.BCEN.org.

How BCEN Exams are Developed

BCEN recognizes the importance of producing psychometrically sound examinations, emphasizing three principal processes:

Test Construction

BCEN conducts Role Delineation Studies (RDS) every 4–5 years to ensure the content on its exams reflects the most current and relevant practice.

As part of the RDS, survey instruments are distributed to nurses in the content area of each exam (emergency, flight, transport, trauma, and pediatric emergency) throughout the United States. This survey data guides the RDS committee in creating the content outline that molds the exams.

The integrated concepts, cognitive level distribution, and number of questions specified within each content area for each BCEN exam program are developed via unanimous agreement from the exam committee.
Item Development

Content experts who write items for BCEN exams represent various aspects of emergency, flight, transport, trauma and pediatric emergency nursing. BCEN strives to screen applicants to ensure geographic, demographic, and practice diversity. Qualifications of individuals involved in item development are documented, consistent with the stated level and purpose of BCEN examination(s), and representative of the clinical practice skills and amount of experience representative of the certificant population. Item writers are trained in the fundamentals of sound item writing and are advised about the purpose and identified structure of BCEN examinations, including their intended audience.

Analysis

Item analysis is a continuous quality process in which performance statistics are collected on each item. Summary statistics are calculated regarding the reliability of each exam, difficulty indexes, performance indexes and discrimination levels.
Eligibility Requirements

Required:
To qualify for a BCEN certification exam, you must hold a current, unrestricted Registered Nurse license in the United States or its Territories. A nursing certificate that is equivalent to a Registered Nurse in the United States is also acceptable.

Two years of trauma nursing experience at an average of 1,000 practice hours per year across the trauma care continuum (trauma nursing practice defined as providing direct care, supervision, education, and advocacy for trauma patients and their families).

Additionally, twenty (20) to thirty (30) hours of trauma specific coursework across the trauma continuum.
How to Apply for a BCEN Exam

Create or Log In to your BCEN Account

Locate the “My Certifications” section on the left-hand side of the screen. Here you will see all five of our certification logos. Click Create New Application next to the appropriate logo to open it. Answer the required questions.

Choose your payment method. Credit card, EChecks/ACH and voucher payments will be processed immediately. Check payments may take up to 4 weeks to process.

Once payment has been processed, you will receive an exam eligibility email from BCEN. This contains important information on your 90-day testing window, how to schedule your exam with BCEN’s test delivery provider, Pearson VUE, and other helpful information.

How to Schedule

To Schedule online:
• Click on Schedule Exam found in the left-hand sidebar next to the appropriate logo on your BCEN account dashboard.
• You will be redirected to Pearson VUE’s website.
• Under Pre-approved Exams, click on the applicable exam link to select your testing center, exam date and time.

To Schedule by phone:
• Contact Pearson VUE customer service at 866-751-6589. For international candidates, please click here for the list of international phone numbers.
• After you schedule your exam, Pearson VUE will send a confirmation email listing your exam date, time, and address, along with directions to the Pearson VUE Testing Center.
Rescheduling

If you are within your 90-day testing window AND still have at least one business day before the exam (based on the time zone of the testing center where you have an exam scheduled), you will be able to reschedule with Pearson VUE with no reschedule/cancellation fees.

When rescheduling, you must pick a new exam time that also falls within your 90-day window.

You can contact Pearson VUE online at www.pearsonvue.com/bcen, or speak to a customer service representative at 866-751-6589, Monday – Friday, 7am–7pm CST.

Candidates who fail to reschedule within these guidelines or do not show for their exam appointment will forfeit the full exam fee. Fees are applicable for new testing windows.

We strongly recommend scheduling your new test day promptly, as test center seat availability is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Failing to Report for a Scheduled Exam

If you do not report for a scheduled exam appointment, you will forfeit all paid fees. A new application and payment will be required for a new exam appointment.

Exam Refunds

A written request for a refund of an exam fee can be submitted to BCEN prior to scheduling an appointment with a BCEN test delivery provider and prior to the close of your 90-day testing window date as outlined in your eligibility notification from BCEN. Once an exam appointment has been scheduled, refund requests will not be accepted.

Testing Acommodations

If you require accommodations in order to sit for your exam, please contact BCEN at bcen@bcen.org for more information before completing the application.
Testing Facilities

Testing centers have been selected to provide accessibility to the largest number of candidates in all states and major metropolitan areas. Exams are delivered by computer at Pearson VUE testing centers. A current listing of testing centers, including addresses and driving directions, appears at www.pearsonvue.com/bcen. If you cannot find a Pearson VUE testing center in your area, contact the BCEN office.

In the event of inclement weather or unforeseen emergencies on the day of an examination, Pearson VUE will determine whether circumstances warrant cancellation and subsequent rescheduling of an exam.

On the day a testing site is closed, Pearson VUE will send one email and make one telephone call (if testing center workload allows) to notify you of the site closure. On the day after the site closure, Pearson VUE will send a follow-up email verifying that the site was closed and that your exam will need to be rescheduled. Exams usually are not rescheduled if testing center personnel are able to open the testing center.

If power to a testing center is temporarily interrupted during exam administration, testing center staff will attempt to restart the exam so that you may continue.

Identification Requirements

To gain admission to the testing center, you must present two forms of original (not photocopied), valid (unexpired) IDs, one form as a primary ID (government issued with name, photo, and signature) and one form as a secondary ID (with name and signature or name and photo). The first and last names you use to register must match exactly with the first and last names on the ID you present at the testing center. Failure to supply proper ID at the time of the exam is considered a missed appointment. There will be no refund of your exam fee.

All IDs must be issued by the country in which you are testing. If you do not have the qualifying ID issued from the country in which you are testing, a passport from your country of citizenship is required, along with a secondary ID.

Exam Results and Personal Information

Confidentiality

Maintaining candidate and certificant confidentiality is of primary importance to BCEN. Individual scores and personal information are not released to anyone other than the candidate/certificant. For the complete text of BCEN’s confidentiality policy, consult the BCEN website at www.BCEN.org.

BCEN publishes aggregate information about the performance of candidate groups on the BCEN website on an annual basis to comply with Accreditation Board for Specialty Nursing Certification (ABSNC) accreditation requirements, which may include but not be limited to pass/fail data and exam performance data. Any data published are based on a sufficient number of candidates to ensure that the data are meaningful to report but do not compromise individual candidate confidentiality, as determined by the BCEN Board of Directors in collaboration with its test development vendor. Studies and reports that include test scores and other exam data do not contain information identifiable with any candidate or certificant, unless authorized by the candidate or certificant.
Maintenance of Records

Candidate and certificant information is maintained within your secure BCEN Account. Within your account you can edit your profile to update your address, phone number, email address, opt in or out of BCEN communications, publish your credential, change your account password and login name. Candidates and certificants can also view their detailed account history which includes information about certification status, exam application status and recertification activities.

Cancellation of Candidate Scores

Candidate misconduct occasionally may cause a score to be suspect, at which time BCEN’s test delivery partner would report the incident to BCEN. BCEN reserves the right to void or withhold exam results if violation of testing regulations is discovered upon investigation.

Any of the following actions can void an exam score or result in the denial, suspension, or revocation of BCEN certification:

- Falsification of information on the certification application.
- Falsification of any material information requested by BCEN.
- Any restrictions such as revocation, suspension, probation or other sanctions of professional RN license by a nursing license authority that limits a nurse’s ability to function in an emergency care setting and perform those tasks normally associated with in emergency nursing specialty practice.
- Misrepresentation of certification status.
- Cheating or collusion with others to cheat, including distributing exam content orally, digitally, or in writing on the certification exam.

Note: BCEN investigates all instances of alleged misconduct, misrepresentation, and/or noncompliance to ensure due process and to protect candidates’ rights. BCEN policies on misconduct, the disciplinary process, and candidate appeals process appear in full on the BCEN website at www.BCEN.org.
How Exam Results are Reported

Once you have completed the exam, you will be instructed to report to test center staff to receive your score report. Scores are reported in written form in person at the testing center, or by email on request.

The score report will indicate your test results as pass or fail, which is determined by your raw score. A raw score is the number of questions you answered correctly. There is a specific breakdown of the major content areas of the exam and how you scored within each area.

Pass/Fail Result Determination

BCEN uses the Angoff technique as the procedure for estimating pass/fail decisions for its exams. Passing scores may vary slightly for each form of the exam. To ensure fairness to all candidates, a process called statistical equating is used. The equating process then considers the difficulty level of each question selected for each form of the exam, attempting to match the difficulty level of each form as closely as possible. To ensure fairness, slight variations in difficulty level are addressed by adjusting the passing score up or down, depending on the overall difficulty level statistics for the group of scored questions that appear on a particular version of the exam.

In the event of an error on the part of BCEN or its agents which results in an incorrect pass or fail score, BCEN reserves the right to correct any score.

If you Pass...

If you do not pass the exam, you will be given your raw scores (i.e., number correct) in each area of the content outline. You must reapply and submit all applicable fees and documentation to retake the exam.
There is a 90-day waiting period between exam attempts.

If you Don’t Pass...

If you pass the exam, you are certified for four (4) years and can use the designated credential after your licensing title with no punctuations. A certificate and wallet card will be delivered within 15 business days after passing the exam.
Contact BCEN if your certificate or wallet card is not received within this timeframe.
