

DO THESE CONTACT HOURS COUNT?

Q: Is the content nursing related?

YES! Great! You can use this contact hour for BCEN Recertification. Let's take a look at other requirements!

NO Not able to use for BCEN Recertification.

Q: Is the content directly related to patient care in your specialty?

YES! Good news, this counts toward your 75 required clinical contact hours for BCEN Recertification!

NO

Q: Does it relate to other aspects of nursing (leadership, revenue cycles, etc...)?

YES! Wonderful! This can be used for BCEN recertification and will count toward your 75 required clinical contact hours.

NO Looks like this contact hour can't be used for BCEN Recertification.

Q: Is the provider of the contact hour accredited?

YES! Awesome! This can be used for BCEN recertification and will count toward your 50 required accredited contact hours.*

I don't know.

Q: When you completed the course did it say "accredited by..." at the bottom? Or was it an academic credit, preceptorship or authoring contact hour?*

YES! Excellent, this will also count toward your 50 required accredited contact hours! You're good to go!

NO No worries, you can still use this for BCEN Recertification, but it won't count toward your 50 required accredited contact hours.

* All national accrediting agencies are accepted for your recertification. These include, but are not limited to, American Association of Critical Care Nurses (AACN), American Nurse Credentialing Center (ANCC), Emergency Nurses Association (ENA) and State Nurses Associations/State Boards of Nursing (SNA/SBN).
