

THE WORLD

needs more

NURSES

like you

You bring calm to chaos, skill to uncertainty, and heart to every patient when they need you most. Becoming board certified wasn't easy — it took long hours, intense commitment, and serious grit. But you did it because you believe in excellence, and it shows through every life you touch. Thank you for being the nurse the world counts on in every shift, every challenge, and every moment that matters.

BOARD OF CERTIFICATION FOR EMERGENCY NURSING
Excellence. Achievement. Impact.

BCEN® is pleased to provide these recognition materials, and proud to be a partner in the success of our board-certified emergency nurses. To learn more about board certification, visit BCEN.org.
